THANK YOU to:

The Sunday Club for the Nativity Play.
Those who have decorated the church so beautifully especially Maureen Cook, Denis Standen, David Price and others.
The Turners for the Christmas tree
Stan Baker who has ended his oversight of the website (see the next Newsheet for info about the new one)
The mince pie and mulled wine makers
The Choir and extras!
The musicians
And lots of others who just make everything happen!!

During communion, please do come forward for a blessing even if you are not receiving communion.

If in our communion service you would like to receive:

- Non alcoholic wine
- Gluten free wafers
- In your seat rather than coming forward.

Please inform one of the sidespeople.

St James the Great, Radley

Refreshments from 5.30pm

ALL WELCOME

Prayers for our Mission Organisations

Please pray for Barnabas' work helping the persecuted; Jeel al Amal's work with their orphan boys and MAF's work in bringing help by air to remote regions of the world

Each year we support three different missions, both financially and in our weekly prayer slots. Currently these are Barnabas, MAF and Jeel al Amal. We have now supported Barnabas for three years so will be deciding upon another Christian Charity/Mission for the next three years. We would value your suggestions so please will you write them on the BLUE list at the back of the church. Thank You.

For details of other services in Sunningwell and Kennington, please see the Christmas leaflet.
