From the YPs:

We are very excited that The Hut is now finished. To celebrate its opening we would like to offer you cake with your coffee after church TODAY and an invitation to come in to look at it.

Several times a year a group of the men come to do the Vicarage garden. They were here last Saturday and transformed it – it will never appear in magazines of model gardens but it does give delight and when they have spent their mornings with mowers and cutters it is always amazingly better!

THANK YOU to all concerned! Pam

FOLK AND FOOD

Sat 1st Nov 7.30pm in the Village Hall, Sunningwell. Cost £15

The friends of Sunningwell Church are putting on an evening of folk music (Mike and Vanessa Woodward plus friends), with supper included. See the poster at the back of the Church

HARVEST

At our harvest service and the lunch afterwards we collected money for Sunflower seeds in Burundi. At the back of the church there are boxes/bags of produce. Please buy one and give a donation. As little as £12 will buy a farmer a 2kg bag of sunflower seeds to grow and £100 would enable a farmer to set up his own cooperative.

If you are interested in joining a Prayer Triplet, please get in touch with Pam.
