Jeel al Amal in English means 'generation of hope'. Let's thank God for the many boys who have been given hope and confidence for their future lives through their time with Jeel al Amal, and pray that each boy that leaves the orphanage will be able to share this hope and confidence with their troubled land.

If in our communion service you would like to receive:

- Gluten free wafers
- In your seat rather than coming forward.

Please inform one of the sidespeople.
