Curiouser and Curiouser;
 how Alice in Wonderland came to be written

A talk by Jim Godfrey, Visitors Officer at Christ Church Cathedral, Oxford

Jim has lived in Oxford for 30 years, and has worked for many years at Christ Church, the home of Alice Liddell (the original inspiration for Alice in Wonderland).

He was brought up in Croft-on-Tees in North Yorkshire, which, curiously enough, was the childhood home of Lewis Carroll. His talk will look at how and why the story of Alice, first published 150 years ago, was originally told.

Sunday 13th September at 6pm in Radley Church

Refreshments from 5.30 pm
